What is gourm.it

gourm.it is a network of italian food producers. Our aim is to spread Italian quality worldwide and over the years we have reached 40 countries. Our core product is cheese and Italian delicatessen.

What most distinguishes us, along with our passion for italian food, is a flexible problem solver approach. Every customer has a need, a wish, an urgency. It all starts from there. And then we come with the solution.

Gourm.it history

Gourm.it, founded in 2000 in Pegognaga, Mantova, is a network of producers. The founding members, all farmers and breeders, aimed to join forces and sell their product, Parmigiano Reggiano, directly to the world. Today, Gourm.it unites 16 food producers from across Italy, ranging from small artisanal cheesemakers to large dairy industries. Our dedicated team of 15 professionals enables us to provide a wide range of services to our customers and suppliers, making our consortium thrive.

Gourm.it staff

Our team consists of 15 skilled collaborators, enabling us to offer personalized solutions for our clients' needs, including product research, logistics, customs, quality control, and more.

We handle every aspect of exporting gastronomic treasures with efficiency and precision, ensuring a smooth experience for all involved.

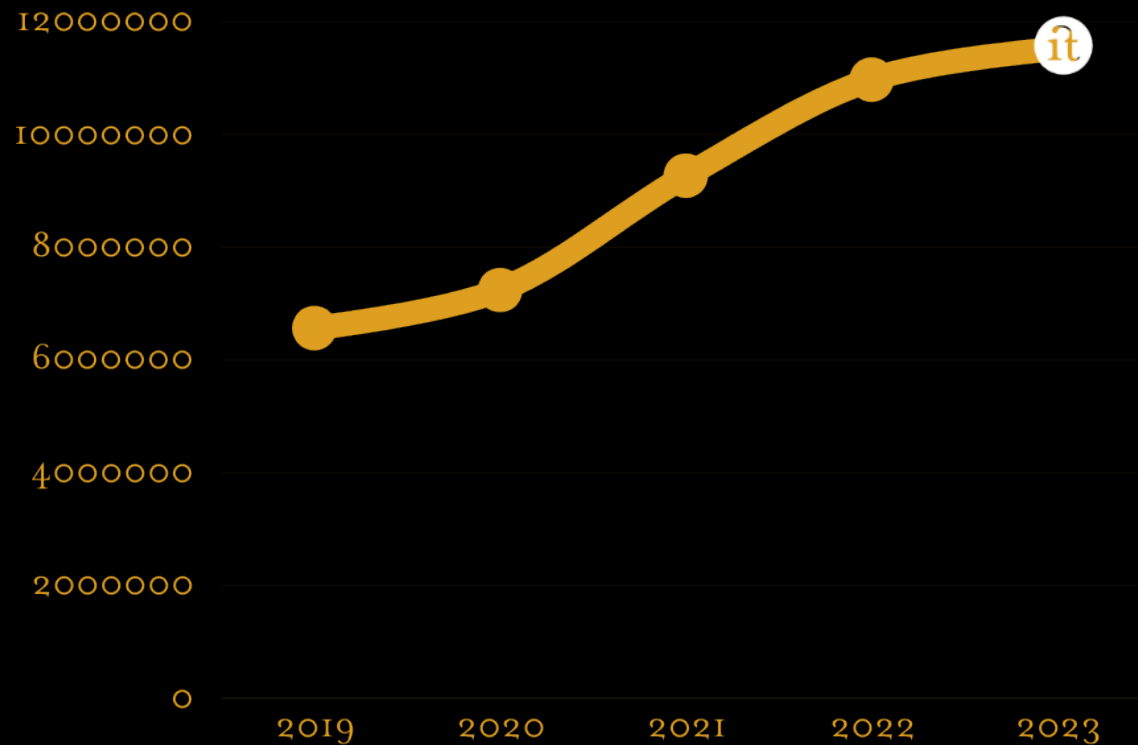

Certified quality

Gourm.it ensures its customers a high-quality service, complying with the latest and strictest international quality standards. Gourm.it is certified as an Authorized Economic Operator, meeting the BRC Global Standards for Agents and Brokers, Organic Certification, JAS Organic for Japan, FDA registration, IFS Broker, Grüne Punkt, ARA Austria, and SEDEX requirements.

Gourm.it markets

Over the years, we have successfully expanded our export to 40 countries worldwide. This achievement is attributed to our problem-solving approach, encompassing integrated logistics, quality management, and customs procedures. Dealing with legal, customs, and logistical intricacies worldwide has enriched us with valuable and up-to-date know-how.

Main products

Gourm.it's mission is to scout the diverse realm of Italian gastronomy, sourcing captivating products for international clients and facilitating international sales through stringent quality qualification and tailor-made logistics. While cheese remains our core product, our offerings have expanded to include salumi, baked goods, seafood, oil, and pasta.

As a complete gateway to the Italian culinary scene, Gourm.it caters to various price points and formats, meeting all gastronomic requirements with finesse and flair.

Private Label

We can offer our customers private label brands or adapt and implement their own brands. From supplier qualification to graphic development and compliance with labeling regulations, our staff handles every aspect of private label development.

Success stories

We are proud of our accomplishment in crafting a high-end private label for a major retail chain in Ireland. The collaboration has been successful, showcasing our expertise in delivering quality products tailored to meet the preferences of their discerning customers.
